Altitudes Café Opens at Suffolk Executive Airport

SUFFOLK, Virginia (April 19, 2013) Suffolk visitors and residents can begin enjoying seasonal southern fare at Altitudes Café, which will open at the Suffolk Executive Airport, at 1200 Gene Bolton Drive. To celebrate the opening, Altitudes Café and Vice Mayor Charles F. Brown are hosting a Grand Opening/Ribbon Cutting ceremony on April 20th at 10:30 a.m. The public is invited to attend the event, which will feature tasty samples and refreshments.

Altitudes Café is owned and managed by Raven Ford. She has been running a small side business making custom cakes for many years. With her husband being an instructor at nearby Skydive Suffolk, she found the opportunity at the Suffolk Executive Airport was a natural fit. By opening Altitudes Café, along with her business partner Tanni Williams, she now provides a scrumptious full menu of home-style cooking with good quality ingredients.

“We are so pleased to welcome Altitudes Café to the Suffolk Executive Airport,” said Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “For many travelers, our Airport is both a welcome center and a central hub for their activities in our community. It will be a wonderful amenity for Suffolk’s fly-in visitors and guests to have dining options during their stay.”

In 2012 a major interior renovation was completed at the Airport terminal building and restaurant.

The restaurant accommodates visitors to the Airport, customers of the Airport's commercial operators and residents from all over Suffolk. The menu features sandwiches, salads, casual southern entrées and home-made desserts, specializing in cheesecake. They will take custom orders for cakes for children's parties, weddings and other special events.

Hours of operation are Saturday from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. and Sunday 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Later in the season they plan to open on Friday, as well.
