Briggs Home Health Agency Expands to Suffolk

SUFFOLK, Virginia (August 15, 2013) – Briggs Home Health Agency, LLC is opening their first Suffolk branch on Thursday, August 15th. They will operate as “Briggs of Suffolk”. To celebrate, they are hosting a Grand Opening/Ribbon Cutting ceremony at 701 E. Pinner Street, Suite B. The company was founded in Norfolk, VA, and, experiencing steady growth, they are expanding their operations into Suffolk, their fourth location. Suffolk Vice Mayor Charles F. Brown will be on hand for this event which is open to the public.

Briggs of Suffolk facilitates a wide range of quality home health care services to a diverse population including elderly, handicapped and psychologically impaired. They are a family-owned business with a full staff of experienced healthcare professionals who are licensed, insured and bonded.

Valerie Briggs, Director, commented that integrity is built into their business plan. “We aim to strive to do the right thing and live by ‘The Golden Rule’,” she said. “The people of Suffolk have been very supportive of our mission.”

“Taking care of our aging population is such an important part of our community,” said Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “We are happy Briggs of Suffolk has decided to expand into our city.”

Briggs of Suffolk accepts private pay and Medicaid. Their hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. For more information, call 757.903.0300.
