Providence Psychological Services Opens Downtown

SUFFOLK, Virginia (June 27, 2013) Providence Psychological Services has opened for business at 129 North Saratoga Street, Suite #1, in Downtown Suffolk. To celebrate, they are holding a Grand Opening/Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on June 28th, at 2 p.m. Vice Mayor Charles F. Brown will be on hand for the event, which is open to the public.

Providence Psychological Services is an outpatient practice that provides comprehensive and effective mental health services. They offer faith-based, professional mental health assistance to children, adolescents, adults and families, covering issues such as depression, trauma, delinquency, ADHD, couples counseling and beyond.

They are owned and operated by Kawanna Ward, who is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW). She has obtained numerous other training certifications as well. She is passionate about the stability of individuals and families, and has more than 15 years of experience providing clinical, community-based mental health services.

Ward noted, "We are so excited to be opening our practice in Suffolk. We have received a great deal of support already, and we are looking forward to getting to know the members of this special city."

“Having high-quality mental health services as a resource is such an important part of the overall health of a community,” said Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “It is with great pleasure we welcome Providence Psychological Services to Suffolk and wish them much success.”

Their hours of operation are Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information, call 757.539.5353 or visit their website at www.providencepsychservices.com.
