Treasured Memories Consignment Shop Opens

SUFFOLK, Virginia (May 31, 2013) Treasured Memories has opened a new Consignment Shop next door to their scrapbook store, at 1009 West Washington Street. They are holding a Grand Opening/Ribbon Cutting ceremony on Saturday, June 1st, at 11:00 a.m. to celebrate the occasion, with Council Member Roger W. Fawcett. The event is open to the public.

The Treasured Memories Consignment shop features new and slightly used clothing, household items, furniture, jewelry and knick-knacks. They intend to feature boutique-style vintage items and antiques as well.

"We have been open for two weeks now and have already seen so much interest in our consignment items," remarked Owner Robin Smith. "We think the new shop will be a great addition to the Treasured Memories gifts we offer next door."

"Treasured Memories' new shopping options will surely be welcomed by their clientele," said Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. "We wish them much success."

The store is open Monday through Wednesday, from Noon to 4:30 p.m., Thursday and Friday, from Noon to 6:00 p.m., and the first and third Saturday every month from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. You can reach them at 757.934.8647 or find them on facebook.
