City of Suffolk to Celebrate National Public Service Recognition Week

SUFFOLK, Va. (April 30, 2009) It's time to thank a public servant. The City of Suffolk is excited to join in the observation of National Public Service Recognition Week from May 4-10. Since 1985, National Public Service Recognition Week has been celebrated the first Monday through Sunday in May. It is a time set aside each year to honor the men and women who serve America as federal, state and local government employees.

This is the first year that Suffolk has participated and has numerous events scheduled during the week to show appreciation to its employees for their hard work and dedication throughout the year. This year's events have been coordinated by the Department of Human Resources.

Some of the events include:

- FREE WORKSHOPS
- FREE POPCORN AND SWEET COTTON CANDY SERVED
- EMPLOYEE DISCOUNTS AT LOCAL STORES AND RESTURANTS
- ICE CREAM TRUCK DELIVERING ICE CREAM TO EMPLOYEES
THOUGHOUT THE CITY
- RAFFLES FOR EXCITING PRIZES

Please help the City to celebrate the occasion by saying thank you to a city worker.
