SUFFOLK OFFERS COMMUNITY E-NEWSLETTER

Suffolk, VA (July 23, 2009) Want to know what band is appearing at next week's TGIF? How about how to access the City's new web streaming feature? You can learn all of that and more by subscribing to Suffolk City E-News.

The City of Suffolk has added the new feature to its website to assist in keeping citizens informed. The new community e-newsletter will be distributed monthly. Citizens can expect to learn about changes to city services and recent and upcoming city events.

The July edition includes information on bulk refuse special collection fees, the City's new web streaming service, information on Suffolk's new police chief and more.

The e-newsletter, produced by the Department of Media and Community Relations, is free and subscription based. Those interested can sign up on the City's main web page – www.suffolk.va.us
