DRIVING SCHOOL EXPANDS IN DOWNTOWN SUFFOLK

SUFFOLK, Virginia (February 13, 2012) – Phyllis Foster’s Driving School has expanded its driving school operations and services in Downtown Suffolk at 180 East Washington Street. Councilman Leroy Bennett will host a ribbon cutting ceremony on Tuesday, February 14, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. to celebrate the opening.

Phyllis Foster Driving School has been serving Suffolk citizens for over 10 years. They offer several mandated courses in conjunction with the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Virginia Department of Education; such as Driver Education, Driver Improvement, Re-Examination/Re-Certification, and Behind-the-Wheel for teens and adults.

“Driving is a lot like baseball,” said owner Renee Townsend. “It’s the one who gets home safely that counts. This is one of the reasons we teach ‘Safety is always first’.”

“A great sign of a successful business is expansion and it is great to hear that Phyllis Foster Driving School has expanded and grown in Suffolk” commented Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “They remain committed to serving the needs of our citizens and we want to wish them continued success.”
